MARION HIGH SCHOOL

Marion, North Carolina

McDowell Co. Public Library
90 West Court St.
Marion, NC 28752-3906

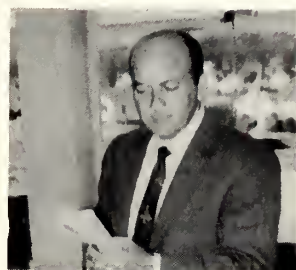

To Mr. D. C. Martin, a man who has contributed so much to Marion High School in both the educational and personal guidance of the students and who is considered by all students a great teacher, we dedicate this annual. He has the respect of each student and teacher in our school because he is a man of high ideals as he has shown by his actions in the past six years that he has served us. He takes great pride in everything he does from the smallest chore to the greatest task.

KEY CLUB

The Marion High School Key Club was organized in 1949 with 15 charter members and Emerson Carter as advisor. Roy Davis, W. G. Wiatt and Charles Elledge were instrumental in procuring the charter.

The Key Club has enjoyed one of its more profitable years, in the way of services rendered, and in creating character and leadership.

With a membership of thirty three, the Key Club has, under its able advisor, Emerson Carter, carried out many projects successfully, and has produced leaders who will long be remembered for their important positions in the Key Club.

MARION HIGH

Officers: President, Travis Geouge; Vice-President, Donnie Young; Secretary, Carolyn McBee; Librarians, Bobbie Landis, Martha Martin.

The Marion High School Band, under the capable direction of Mr. Bernard Hirsch, furnishes a variety of music and entertainment for our school.

Each year the Band attends the State Music Contest at Greensboro and has received a rating of superior for the past three years.

SCHOOL BAND

The football games and pep rallies are spiced with the thrilling marches and half-time formations of the Band.

Not only is the Band an outstanding marching band, but has awed well-known critics with their splendid musicianship displayed in the seasonal concerts.

FOOTBALL

With only seven returning lettermen, the Marion High School Rippers launched the 1955 season in grand style. What they lacked in experience and ability, they made up for with great spirit and determination. In winning 4 and losing 6, the Rippers had a very successful season.

Let us not overlook the splendid job done by Coach Ditt, who, with no assistants, had to be line, backfield and head coach.

Sixty-nine boys reported for practice. At the end of the season, fifty-six were still out, thus showing the wonderful spirit that prevailed among the players.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

State of North Carolina
McDowell County
Town of Marion

We, the Senior Class of Marion High School, in this year of nineteen hundred and fifty-six, do hereby solemnly declare the following to be our last will and testament.

It is with respect and the love of advancement that we have left our traits to the rising senior classes, so may they always strive to uphold their elders' ideals.

I, Travis Geouge, leave my poor articulation and sour notes to Doug Cooper.

We, Harold Poteat and Coy Bradley, leave our dilatoriness to Bill Steppe.

I, Sonny Adkins, bequeath my aptness in the utilization of teeming phraseology to anyone who can figure out what this mess means.

I, Louise Atkins, leave my boisterous ways and stupidity to Muriel Davis.

We, Grace Hunter, Loretta Stroud, and Earl Arrowood, leave our lovely voices locked in our lockers.

We, Pat Sisk, Ann Morris, Christine Seay, Bill Holden, Bobby Collins, and Bobby Fox, leave Marion High School for different lives.

I, Royce Bailey, leave my artistic talents to Rembrandt.

We, Donald Fox, Tom Harris, Charles Jimison, James Ray Banks, and Hoyle Moody, leave our medals for safe driving to Matt Smith, Gene Clontz, and Jackie Ross.

We, Bessie Bruner, Margaret Epley, and Annie Ray Hensley, leave our love of English to no one.

We, Bill Buchanan, Arvin Gibson, Lon Woodard, and Carroll Kanipe, leave. . . .

I, Nona Burnette, leave my ability to get along with all the boys to absolutely no one. . . . I may need it later.

We, David Cameron and Sydney Taylor, leave our love of chemistry to Bill Waycaster and Ann Lightfoot.

I, Pat Collins, leave my quiet ways and ability to control my temper to Bette Ann Hoyle.

We, Betty Conley and Pauline Crisp, leave our very sweet ways to Carolyn McBee.

I, Ray Conley, leave my proper ways and the ability to mystify the girls to David Bryant.

I, Jean Condrey, leave my brain concussion to anyone who can come up kicking.

I, Frankie Daniels, leave my dynamite baseball arguments to Travis Jackson.

I, John Ray Davis, leave my ability to bring an unruly mascot to next year's Seniors.

We, R. V. and Paul Davis, leave our good times to David Runnion and Jerry Walker.

I, Doris Elliott, leave my Ipana smile to the Colgate Company.

We, Ronald Elliott and Arville England, leave our ability to go with underclassmen to Jolene Moore and Sam Gray.

I, Jim Elmore, leave my ability to "bum" cigarettes to anyone who doesn't have "one."

I, Carol Evans, leave my knowledge of all the Seniors' measurements to the one who measures for caps and gowns next year.

I, Greta Evans, leave my "giggles" to anyone who can stand them.

I, Pat Flack, leave my greeting to anyone who can say it and get an answer.

I, "Sports" Frick, leave my nickname to next year's sports editor.

We, Elva Young, Frances Wilson, Ann Frazier, and Doris Hughes, leave our night life to anyone that can take it.

We, Christine Trent, Ima Jean Roland, and Margaret Gaddy, leave our shorthand homework to anyone who can pass the "stuff."

I, Charlie Garner, leave my height to Allen Atkins.

We, Jack and Bill Hall, leave our trips to Asheville to anyone who feels down in the dumps.

I, Roy Hall, leave my tall, dark, and handsome looks to Joe Rowland.

We, Betty Taylor and Judy Harklerode, leave our aimless wanderings in the hall to anyone who gets restless.

I, Tommy Hewitt, leave my vacant seat in the trombone section to Tommy Wilkinson.

We, Pat Long and Joyce Higgins, leave our long hair to no one, because we would look pretty silly bald-headed.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, Alice Hoyle and Nona Justice leave our sudden popularity to anyone who can make the grade.

We, Joan Miller and Kathryn Johnson, leave our tire marks on the road.

I, Bobbie Landis, leave my ability to strut to no one. . . . it may come in handy later.

I, Pat Hudson, leave my position as unofficial secretary to Mr. Carter to anyone who can fill the requirements.

I, Harriett Lavender, leave my ability to "dirty-shag" to no one. . . . it is my own talent.

I, Jack Lawing, leave my splendid record of achievements to anyone who can compete with it.

We, Tillar Lytle and Larry Lawrence, leave our "blondes" to no one. . . . we'll be back for 'em.

I, Sandra Mask, leave my "slinky" walk to Jane Story.

I, Martha Martin, leave my petite figure to Becky Epley.

I, Glenn Miller, leave with Psyche.

I, Jo Ann Miller, leave in the same condition in which I came, except a little smarter.

I, Ruth Mills, leave my quiet ways to Rachel Stroud. . . . she needs them.

We, Tommy Morgan and David Norman, leave our hatred of women to "Pete" Hudson.

We, Vera Morgan and Betty Lou Westall, leave our endless chatter to anyone who has that much breath.

I, Helen Morris, leave my feelings for a certain Senior boy to a certain Junior girl.

I, Dorothy Morrow, leave my crown and all of the characteristics that secured it to my sister, Sara.

I, Bruce Morton, leave M. H. S. with my heel-taps echoing through the halls.

I, Peggy Padgette, leave M. H. S. with the ability to crawl into the cabinets in the library.

I, Jerry Peppers, leave my Charles Atlas handbook to anyone who needs it with the hope that they have more success than I did.

We, Grady Pinkerton, Vergil Reid, Robert Duncan and Freddie Taylor, leave our shyness to Charles Woody.

I, Lynn Ross, leave with a happy memory.

I, Hal Silvers, leave with the honor of being the only boy library assistant.

I, Mary Alice Sisk, leave. . . . gladly!!!

I, Revonda Smith, leave with the friendship of all my classmates.

We, Edith Vance and Thurley Steppe, leave with Revonda.

I, Gail Suttlemyre, leave my alto voice to Dora Rutherford.

We, Linda Taylor and Leta Jo Kent, leave our pretty, naturally curly hair to no one. . . . we like it.

I, Bobby Wilson, leave with Alice.

I, Virginia Wilson, leave my position on the basketball team to DeEsta Finley.

I, Helen Wyatt, leave my pretty legs to anyone who thinks they would fit.

We, Peggy Young and Donnie Young, leave. . . . dancing.

I, Tommy Lind, leave my rare and Continental sense of humor to anyone who will make as much use of it as I have.

I, Carmella Wages, leave my ability to be in "predicaments" to no one because I still have some pity for the underclassmen.

We, the Senior Class, leave with the hope that the next year's class will up-hold the standards of our school as we have done.
